There is in the prison a table of rules or orders. They were made at very distant times, from the reign of Queen Elizabeth, to the date they bear; and some of them partly coincide with others: those which do so I have put together to avoid repetition, and have presumed to abridge the whole.

HILARY 3d GEORGE II. 1729

1, 2, 3. Warden or deputy to appoint turnkeys etc. with arms: to stop persons bringing arms, and watch if an escape be in agitation.

4. Warden to distribute charity-money. He, or his agent, to keep one key of the box; and the prisoners another.

5, 6, 12. If a master-side debtor shall neglect for three months to pay his chamber-rent; the warden may, not lock him up, but, remove him to the common-side; delivering to him his goods by a witnessed inventory. After discharge, if legal dues be still unpaid, he may be detained in the common-ward: the door of which is never to be shut but at night (summer at ten, winter at nine): and then a watchman must attend to open it for those who must go to the yard, etc.

7. Such as attempt to escape, or greatly misbehave, may be shut up in a close room or dungeon.
N.B. It was reported to the four judges whose names are here subscribed, and who made inquiry concerning it, to be "boarded wholesome and dry."

8, 18. Warden to repair the whole house, chapel, drains, etc., and keep all clean. To take care that divine service be duly performed, and the sacraments administered. Prisoners to attend.

9. Against clandestine Fleet-marriages.

10. Those who blaspheme, curse, swear, or are disorderly, to be set in the stocks.

11, 13. Warden or deputy to dispose of the chambers, and tap: and see that good order be observed in the public rooms, etc.

14. Warden to take effectual care that no prisoner be carried to a spunging-house; and that no garnish be demanded from a new-comer.

15. Warden to cause a table of gifts and bequests, written in a fair and legible hand, to be hung up in the hall. And to see that no prisoner be defrauded of his share. None of the servants to partake or distribute.

16. Every prisoner not worth five pounds, etc. (As before in remarks.)

17. Two rooms to be an infirmary for common-side debtors. No prisoner obliged to sleep with one that is diseased.

19. Coroner's inquest upon the dead: and corpse to be delivered to the friends, free of cost.

20. Warden not to remove a prisoner to the King's Bench by habeas corpus.

21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26. Warden to keep books, and register commitments, courts from whence, declarations, discharges, writs of habeas corpus. Tipstaff and judge's clerk to keep each a separate book of prisoners delivered up at a judge's chamber.

27. All those books, except the tipstaff's, to be kept in the public office of the clerk of the papers; accessible to all persons for copying, etc.

28. No clerk, officer, or servant of any judge to take a fee on occasion of a petition or complaint, founded upon the foregoing orders, or any misgovernment.

29. That the warden and his officers do treat the several prisoners in his custody with all tenderness and humanity: and that such prisoners do behave themselves toward the warden with that submission and regard which the law requires.

R. EYRE ALEX. DENTON
ROBT. PRICE J. FORTESCUE A.

There was, moreover, a little code of laws, eighteen in number, enacted by the master's-side debtors, and printed by D. Jones 1774. It established a president, a secretary, and a committee, which was to be chosen every month, and to consist of three members from each gallery. These were to meet in the committee-room every Thursday: and at other times when summoned by the crier, at command of the president, or of a majority of their own number. They were to raise contributions by assessment: to hear complaints: determine disputes: levy fines; and seize goods for payment. Their sense to be deemed the sense of the whole house. The president or secretary to hold the cash; the committee to dispose of it. Their scavenger to wash the galleries once a week; to water and sweep them every morning before eight; to sweep the yard twice every week; and to light the lamps all over the house. No person to throw out water, etc., anywhere but at the sinks in the
